Dear People,

I have lived in Round Valley for 21 years. For many years the area lived up to its moniker: Nature's Hideaway. However, because of a LACK of planning, oversight, and enforcement on the part of the county, our home has become a Mecca for illegal pot grows and the egregious fallout that accompanies greed-driven behavior. I know that nearly everyone who lives here is discouraged, fearful, and hopeless. I feel as if the county is all too happy to see us lose everything that we hold dear. It is difficult for me not to believe that you have no regard for any of us who live here. I find this particularly disturbing because it smacks of racism, greed, and disrespect for the environment. My only hope is that you dig deep into your hearts and consider how you would feel if this were happening to you.

Sincerely,

Crispin Littlehailes
